Dear Taxpayer:

Thank you for the inquiry dated Jan. 09, 2013.

On July 30, 2012, we sent you a penalty notice for filing your information returns late.

We considered your explanation regarding the penalty for not filing the information returns listed above as required. We determined that you showed reasonable cause and we won't charge the penalty of $2,460.00.

To avoid penalties in future years, we encourage you to review and follow the filing requirements for information returns. If you generally file information returns each year, we send you an annual instruction booklet explaining the filing requirements and any changes for the current year. You can also get this information from your local IRS office by calling 1-800-TAX-FORM.

If you have any questions, please call Rafael A. Hernandez at 267-941-4706 between the hours of 8:00am and 2:30pm. If the number is outside your local calling area, there may be a long-distance charge to you.

If you prefer, you may write to us at the address shown at the top of the first page of this letter.

Whenever you write, please include this letter and, in the spaces below, give us your telephone number with the hours we can reach you. Keep a copy of this letter for your records.
